

e-shifter not available on UK specification

At the heart of the smart cockpit, find a large 9.3" vertical touchscreen* on the central console. As easy to use as a smartphone, it gives you access to connected navigation services (with European maps) and allows you to control all the functions of your Arkana, such as driving aids or the multi-sense system to change driving modes and ambient lighting colours.

*Standard from techno